
RADIATION THERAPY PATIENT CHARTER

People undergoing radiation therapy have the right to:

Be treated respectfully by all personnel involved in their treatment and care.

•

Access appropriate care in a reasonable time frame.

•

Receive information from their care provider that is based on best evidence.

•

Be given the opportunity to ask questions and provide feedback.

•

Be educated about their treatment and care.

•

Be actively involved in decisions related to their care and provide informed consent, which can be withdrawn at any time.

•

Request a second opinion during the course of their treatment and care.

•

Have their personal health information kept confidential and have access to it.

•

Access supportive services throughout their treatment and care.

•

Have their radiation treatment coordinated with the rest of their care.